

Ashleigh & Jeshua

Ashleigh and Jeshua met through friends, and after five minutes of conversation, they both knew they were meant to be together. It truly was love at first sight. So began their journey, and eventually, Jeshua proposed at sunset amongst the flora and fauna at the top of the Kalamunda hill. In keeping with the proposal, the couple chose to hold the ceremony amongst nature in the Queens Gardens. It was an enchanting, heart-warming wedding with a long walk from the limo, through the lush greenery, and down the red carpeted aisle to the sweet music of a string quartet. Ashleigh looked regal in a lace Milla Nova gown, a beaded birdcage veil and a cascading two-tier veil. An elegant gold tiara and golden jewellery added a touch of regality to her attire, and a bouquet of red roses incorporated a pop of colour. Jeshua looked sophisticated and notable in all-black attire, except for a white tie and a red rose boutonniere to match Ashleigh's bouquet. The wedding reception took place in the Historic Ballroom at the Pagoda Resort and Spa. The warm, radiant lustre of the chandeliers suited the romantic aesthetic of the evening and added a classy ambience to the room. After the formalities had concluded, the wedded couple enjoyed time boozing on the dancefloor with their loved ones. The happy couple will certainly cherish these memories and each other in the many prosperous years to come.

"Marriage is forever not just one day, so if it isn't perfect it doesn't matter – enjoy it and enjoy your life together."
