

Anna & Julian

Sharing a number of mutual friends and belonging to the same Facebook group, Julian and Anna first met after interacting online. A sign of what was to come, their first communication was on Valentine's Day in 2017 and the couple have been besotted ever since. A beautiful holiday in Bali marked the beginning of the couple's engagement. Never a dull moment, the day of the proposal began with an emergency trip to the hospital and ended with a candlelit Italian dinner amongst Bali's gorgeous rice paddies where Julian asked Anna for a chance at forever. An intimate destination wedding in Bali was the couple's first preference, but with travel restrictions in place, the couple fell in love with the beautiful Pagoda Resort & Spa who made their dreams a reality. Wanting a no-fuss wedding with their nearest and dearest, the couple opted not to have any groomsmen or bridesmaids, instead keeping it simple and intimate with just the two of them. Anna looked gorgeous in a beautiful fishtail gown and Julian looked suave in a white suit jacket with black lapels. Head over heels in love, the couple had an excellent day in Pagoda's elegant surrounds with their loved ones. Anna and Julian look forward to spending a lifetime of love and laughter together.
